

PIAA District 6 Girls' Golf Tournament
October 13-14, 2010 – 10:00 am Shotgun Start
Penn State Golf Course- White Course (State College, PA)

October 14, 2010:

Sara Jackson from State College and Olivia Stever from Tyrone battled the weather and each other on the second and final day of the District 6 Girls' Golf Championships held on the White Course of the Penn State Golf Courses. Stever matched Jackson's two-over-par 77 but could not cut into the five stroke lead from Day One. Sara Jackson's two-day total of 151 won her the 2010 District 6 Girls' Golf Individual Championship. Runner up Olivia Stever and third place finisher, Bellefonte's Alyssa Sinclair with Champion Sara Jackson will represent the district at next week's Western Regional competition to be held at Tom's Run Golf Course in Blairsville on October 18. State College won the team title and also compete at the Western Regional.

Teresa Kuhns, Hollidaysburg, defeated Karissa Thal, Bellefonte, in a one hole playoff for Fourth place after both girls ended up with a 185 total for the tournament. State College's Christine Hughes took the final medalist honor finishing sixth with a total of 186.

Jackson, Hughes, Brianna Bevan and Allison Brackbill led State College to the team title with a collective score of 745. Bellefonte (797), Hollidaysburg (808) and Philipsburg-Osceola (866) were the other schools who fielded four scoring golfers in the team race.
